7. Registry of Members

7.1. The Secretary must maintain an up to date registry of members including:

- a) the name and the current address of each member; and
- b) email address of each member if it is voluntarily given to the Association.
- c) the date on which each member was enrolled in the registry.
- d) type of membership.

8. Disciplinary Action, Suspension and Expulsion of Members

8.1. Subject to these Articles, if the committee is of the opinion that a member has refused or failed to comply with these Articles, or has been guilty of conduct unbecoming a member or prejudicial to the interests of the Association, the committee may by resolution:

- a) fine an amount not exceeding $500; or
- b) suspend membership of the Association for a specified period; or
- c) expel from the Association.

8.2. A resolution of the committee under Article 8.1 does not take effect unless:

- a) resolved at a meeting held in accordance with Article 8.3 and confirmed by the committee; and
- b) if the member exercises a right of appeal to the Association under Article 8.9, the Association confirms the resolution in accordance with Articles 8.7 and 8.8

8.3. A meeting of the committee to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under Article 8.1 must be held not earlier than 14 days, and not later than 28 days, after notice has been issued to the member in accordance with Article 8.4.

8.4. For the purposes of giving notice in accordance with Article 8.3, the Secretary must, as soon as possible, give the member a written notice:

- a) setting out the resolution of the committee and the grounds in which it is based; and
- b) stating that the member, or his or her representative, may address the committee at a meeting to be held not earlier than 14 days and not later than 28 days after the notice has been given to that member; and
- c) stating the date, place and time of that meeting; and
- d) informing the member that he or she may do one or both of the following:
 - i. attend that meeting, or
 - ii. before the date of that meeting, submit a written statement to the secretary seeking the revocation of the resolution.
- e) informing the member that, if at that meeting, the committee confirms the resolution, he or she may, not later than 48 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal to the Association in a general meeting against the resolution.

8.5. At a committee meeting to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under Article 8.1, the committee must:

- a) give the member, or his or her representative, an opportunity to be heard; and
- b) give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the member; and
- c) determine by resolution as to whether to confirm or to withdraw the resolution.

8.6. If the committee confirms the resolution in accordance with the Article 8.3, the member may, not later than 48 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal to the Association in a general meeting against the resolution.

- 8.7. If the Secretary receives a notice under Article 8.6, he or she must notify the committee and then the committee must convene a general meeting of the Association to be held within 21 days after the date on which the Secretary received the appeal from the said member.
- 8.8. At a general meeting of the Association convened under Article 8.7:
- a) business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and
 - b) the committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds for the resolution and the reasons for the passing of the resolution; and
 - c) the member, or his or her representative, must be given an opportunity to be heard and
 - d) the members present must vote by secret ballot on the issue whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- 8.9. A resolution is confirmed if more than two-thirds of the members vote in person, or by proxy, in favour of the resolution. In any other event, the resolution should be withdrawn.

9. Disputes in Relation to Objectives, Business & Activities of the Association and Mediation

- 9.1. The grievance procedure set out in this Article applies to disputes under these Articles between-
- a) a member and another member; or
 - b) a member and the Association.
- 9.2. The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and, if possible, resolve the dispute within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties.
- 9.3. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting, or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must hold a meeting within 10 days in the presence of a mediator.
- 9.4. The mediator must be:
- a) a person chosen by agreement between the parties;
 - b) or in the absence of an agreement-
 - i. in the case of a dispute between a member and another member, a person appointed by the committee of the Association; or
 - ii. in the case of a dispute between a member and the Association, an independent arbitrator/mediator acceptable to both parties.
- 9.5. A member of the Association can be a mediator.
- 9.6. The mediator cannot be a member who is a party to the dispute.
- 9.7. The parties to the dispute must, in good faith, attempt to settle the dispute by mediation.
- 9.8. The mediator, in conducting the mediation, must:
- a) give the parties to the mediation process every opportunity to be heard; and
 - b) allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
 - c) ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties in dispute throughout the mediation process
- 9.9. The mediator must not determine the dispute.
- 9.10. If the mediation process does not result in the dispute being resolved, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise by law.

10. Annual General Meeting

- 10.1. The committee may determine the date, time and place for the annual general meeting of the Association. The Annual General Meeting must be held before the end of February in each year.
- 10.2. The notice convening the annual general meeting must specify that the meeting is an annual general meeting.

10.3. The ordinary business of the annual general meeting shall be:

- a) to confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since that meeting; and
- b) to receive from the committee reports upon the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year; and
- c) to elect new office bearers of the Association

10.4. The annual general meeting may conduct any special business of which notice has been given in accordance with these Articles.

11. Special General Meetings

11.1. In addition to the annual general meeting, any other general meetings may be held in the same year.

11.2. All general meetings other than the annual general meeting are special general meetings.

11.3. The committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the Association.

11.4. If, but for this Article, more than 15 months would elapse between annual general meetings, the committee must convene a special general meeting before the expiration of that period.

11.5. The committee must, on the request in writing of members representing not less than 20 full members eligible to vote or 20 per cent of the total number of full members eligible to vote, convene a special general meeting of the Association.

11.6. The request for a special general meeting must-

- a) state the objectives of the meeting; and
- b) be signed by the members requesting the meeting; and
- c) be sent to the Secretary.

11.7. If the committee does not convene a special general meeting within one month after the date in which the request is sent addressed to the Secretary, the members making the request, or any one of them, may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than 3 months after that date.

11.8. If a special general meeting is convened by the members in accordance with the Articles 11.5, 11.6 and 11.7, it must be convened in the same manner so far as possible to a meeting convened by the committee and all reasonable expenses incurred in convening the special general meeting must be refunded by the Association to the persons who incurred the expenses.

12. Special Business

All business that is conducted at a special general meeting and all business that is conducted at the annual general meeting, except for business conducted under the Article 10.3 as ordinary business of the annual general meeting, is deemed to be special business.

13. Notice of the General Meeting

13.1. The Secretary must send a notice to each member of the Association, stating the place, date, time, proposed agenda and the nature of the meeting, at least 14 days before, or if a special resolution has been proposed at least 21 days before, the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Association.

13.2. Notice may be sent:

- a) by prepaid post to the address appearing in the register of members; or
- b) by facsimile transmission or electronic transmission.

13.3. No business other than that set out in the agenda of the meeting may be conducted at the meeting.

13.4. A member intending to bring any proposal before a meeting should notify the Secretary of the Association about the proposal in writing (paper or electronic). The Secretary of the Association must include the said proposal in the agenda for the next general meeting.

14. Quorum at General Meetings

14.1. No item of business is conducted at a general meeting without the quorum of members who are eligible to vote as stated in these Articles.

14.2. Twenty full members or 20 percent of full members, whichever is less, personally present constitute a quorum to conduct of the business of a general meeting.

14.3. If, within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting, a quorum is not present:

- a) the meeting must be dissolved in the case of a meeting convened upon the request of members in accordance with Article 11.5; and
- b) in any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and at the same place (unless another place is specified by the Chairperson at the time of the adjournment or by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned).

14.4. If at the adjourned meeting the quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the presence of at least three members shall be a quorum.

15. Presiding at General Meetings

15.1. The President, or in the President's absence, the Vice-President, shall preside at each general meeting of the Association.

15.2. If both the President and the Vice-President are absent from a general meeting, or are unable to preside, the members present must elect one of their members to preside the meeting.

16. Adjournment of Meetings

16.1. The person presiding may, with the consent of a majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting, if need arise.

16.2. No business may be conducted at an adjourned meeting other than the unfinished business from the meeting that was adjourned.

16.3. If a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in accordance with Article 13.

16.4. Except as provided pursuant to the Article 16.3, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment of the business to be conducted at an adjourned meeting.

17. Voting at General Meetings

17.1. Upon any issue arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member can cast one vote only.

17.2. All votes must be given personally or by proxy in accordance with the Article 20.

17.3. In the case of an equality of voting occurs, the Chairperson of the meeting is entitled to cast a second vote.

17.4. A member is not entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all monies due and payable by the member to the Association have been paid, other than the amount of the annual subscription payable in respect of the current financial year.

18. Poll at General Meetings

18.1. If at a meeting a poll on any issue is demanded by not less than three members, it must be taken at that meeting in such manner as the Chairperson may direct and the resolution of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting on that issue.

18.2. A poll that is demanded on the election of a Chairperson or on an issue of an adjournment of a meeting must be addressed immediately. A poll that is demanded on any other issue could be taken up at such time before the close of the meeting on the Chairperson discretion.

19. Resolution Process

- 19.1. If an issue arising at a general meeting of the Association is determined on a show of hands-
- a) A declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution is:
 - i. carried;
 - ii. carried unanimously;
 - iii. carried by a particular majority; or
 - iv. lost; and
 - b) An entry to that effect in the minutes of the Association is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of, or against, that resolution.

20. Proxies

- 20.1. Each member is entitled to appoint another member as a proxy by notice given to the Secretary no later than 24 hours before the time of the scheduled meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed.
- 20.2. The notice appointing the proxy must be in the specified form set out in Appendix 4.

21. Executive Committee

- 21.1. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by the executive committee which consists of members as stipulated in the Article 24.1.
- 21.2. The committee-
- a) full members shall control and manage the business and affairs of the Association; and
 - b) may, subject to these Articles, the Act and the Regulations, exercise all such powers and functions as may be exercised by the Association other than those powers and functions that are required by these Articles to be exercised by general meetings of the members of the Association; and
 - c) subject to these Articles, the Act and the Regulations, has power to perform all such acts and things as appear to the committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Association.
- 21.3. Subject to relevant provisions of the Act, the committee shall consist of the office bearers of the Association

22. Members of the Committee

- 22.1. Subject to these Articles, each member of the committee shall hold office until the next annual general meeting after the date of election but is eligible for re-election.
- 22.2. In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the membership of the committee, the committee may appoint a member of the Association to fill the vacancy and the member appointed shall hold office, subject to these Articles, until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting following the date of the appointment.

23. Election of Committee Members

- 23.1. At the very first meeting when the organization is formed all members who are duly elected will be accepted and will form the first committee.
- 23.2. Nominations of candidates for election as members of the committee must be:
- a) made in writing using the specified form set out in Appendix 3 and duly proposed and seconded by two members of the Association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate.

- b) delivered to the Secretary of the Association not less than 7 days prior to the date fixed for the annual general meeting.

- 23.3. If the nominations received are insufficient to fill all vacancies of the committee, further nominations can be received at the annual general meeting.
- 23.4. If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected.
- 23.5. If the number of nominations or further nominations received at the annual general meeting exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a secret ballot must be held in a manner determined by the committee.
- 23.6. If a ballot for the election of members of the committee is required at the annual general meeting, the list of members seeking election will be listed in a ballot paper or will be prominently display at the polling booth.
- 23.7. In case of a vacancy occurring in any post during the course of the financial year, any such vacancy shall be filled by the committee within one month of the occurrence of such vacancy.
- 23.8. In case of any of the nominee, the proposer or the seconder is not a full member, the nomination will be rejected.

- 30.2. Each member present at a meeting of the committee, or at a meeting of any subcommittee appointed by the committee (including the person presiding at the meeting), is entitled to one vote. In the event of an equality of votes on any issue, the person presiding may exercise a second vote.

31. Removal of a Committee Member

- 31.1. The Association in a special general meeting may, by resolution, remove any member of the committee before the expiration of the member's term of office and appoint another member in his or her place to hold office until the expiration of the term of the first mentioned member.
- 31.2. The committee member who is the subject of the proposed resolution referred in Article 31.1 may make representations in writing to the Secretary or President of the Association (not exceeding a reasonable length) objecting the resolution. The said committee member may also request that his or her objections be notified to all the members of the Association.
- 31.3. The Secretary or the President may give a copy of the representations to each member of the Association or, if they are not so given, the member may require that they be read out at the meeting.

32. Minutes of Committee Meetings

The Secretary of the Association must keep minutes of the resolutions and proceedings of each general meeting, and each committee meeting, together with a record of the names of persons present at committee meetings.

33. Financial Year

- 33.1. The Financial Year of the association shall be from the 1st of February to the 31st of January.
- 33.2. The annual accounts of the association shall be audited at the end of the financial year by a qualified person appointed at the Annual General Meeting.

34. Funds

- 34.1. The Treasurer of the Association must:
- a) collect and receive all monies due to the Association and make all payments authorized by the Association; and
 - b) keep relevant accounts and books showing the financial transactions of the Association with relevant details of all receipts and expenditure connected with the activities of the Association.
